LISTENED TO SPEECH.

Chief Justice of England Among the Interested Spectators.

ARGUMENT FOR DEFENDANT.

A Rumor Is Started That M. Labori Will Not Speak Owing to the Numerous Irritating Spots With Judges.

Rennes, Sept. 8.—The announcement was made that the verdict of the courtmartial will be rendered Saturday. M. Labori foregoes the right to speak for the defense, lest by doing so he irritate the judges and destroy the good effect hoped from the speech of M. Demange.

Rennes, Sept. 8.—The hall of the Lycee was crowded at the opening of the fifth day of the fifth week of the second trial by courtmartial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus of the artillery, charged with treason.

There was a large attendance of ladies and newspaper writers who sat up all night in order to secure front places. At an early hour a long line was formed of people awaiting admission. Standing room at the back of the court now commands 15 and 20 francs for places.

Among the privileged witnesses was Baron Russell of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, who was conducted to a seat by General Chamoin and M. Paleologue, of the French foreign office. The lord chief justice was seated at the back of the judge's table. He came here from Paris where he has attended the sessions of the Anglo-Venezuelan boundary arbitration commission in order to see something of the trial.

Maitre Demange at once opened his speech for the defense. In eloquent terms and with impressive delivery he brought out strong evidence against Esterhazy. During the course of his remarks he cried: "Do you think if Dreyfus and Esterhazy had been before the courtmartial of 1894 that the court would have condemned Captain Dreyfus?" At the question counsel pointed to the prisoner sitting before him and added: "No."

Dreyfus appeared cheerful. He smiled and shook hands with his counsel on entering the court. The English chief justice followed the speech of M. Demange with the closest attention. The lawyer gave a very fine performance, so far as the audience was concerned. His voice was exquisitely modulated, sometimes soft and persuasive and at other times sharply argumentative.

Finally he filled the room with his stentorian tones as he thundered with indignation at the charges against Dreyfus and the shameful weakness of the prosecution and the denunciation of Esterhazy. The gestures and features of M. Demange were equally expressive.

The front seats of the chief witnesses were empty except for the presence of M. Trarieux, the former minister of justice and M. Cavaignac, former minister of war, all the generals and officers having left Rennes by order of the minister of war, General de Gallifet.

Colonel Picquart has also left Rennes, although he holds no rank in the army.

Dreyfus listened to the oration of M. Demange with a mask of impassability resembling his frozen attitude during the first days of the trial. Whatever the prisoner's feelings were he carefully concealed them.

At noon Demange was still speaking and he announced that he would need another two hours and a half to finish his plea, so the court adjourned until 7:30 a. m.

The fact that M. Labori has to speak and that probably the government commissary, Major Carriere, makes it practically certain that the verdict will not be given before Monday.

The general impression formed was that the speech of M. Demange must have had a certain effect on the judges. It was a strong effort argumentatively.

There was a rumor after the adjournment of the court that M. Labori had decided not to speak, the idea being that his abstention from so doing, in view of the irritating effect his every utterance has on the court, would be rather an advantage than otherwise to Dreyfus.

M. Labori was asked if there was any truth in the report and he replied with a shrug of his shoulders, apparently conveying the impression that the matter was under consideration. It was generally noticed that when M. Labori entered the court he spoke to M. Demange in a deprecating tone and a sharp discussion ensued, almost bordering on a dispute.

The same thing occurred during the usual brief suspension of the sitting. The two lawyers apparently were at loggerheads about the best manner of conducting the case which, it was said, boded no good for Dreyfus.

Great interest has been aroused here by the arrival at Rennes of Max Regis, the former mayor of Algiers, and a notorious Jew baiter. He is attended by a couple of native Algerians in native costume and a crowd of people followed them about.

ELECTRIC CARS

Come Together With Great Force,

Injuring Several Passengers.

Cleveland, Sept. 8.—Six persons were injured in a collision between two electric street cars on Ontario street. Chris Schreupback, M. A. Weber, Miss Nora Scanlan, George Schumann, Noble Hotchkiss and James W. Miller are the injured. One car had stopped to take on passengers when another car came up rapidly behind it. On account of wet rails, the latter's speed could not be checked and it crashed into the first car. Both cars were badly wrecked.

Ohio Soldiers Appointed.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The following appointments in the volunteer army are announced from Ohio: To be captains, F. J. Herman, late captain First Ohio cavalry, Forty-second; Timin Gillmore, late adjutant Seventh Ohio, Forty-third; Carl K. Mower, late captain United States volunteers, Forty-first; A. B. Coit, late colonel Fourth Ohio, Forty-second; Charles F. Hake, Jr., late captain company I, First Ohio, Forty-fourth; George T. McConnell, late captain Ohio artillery, Forty-sixth; A. C. Rogers, late captain First Ohio cavalry, Forty-seventh; A. B. Botts, late major Tenth Ohio, Forty-seventh; To be first lieutenants, I. I. Morrison, late first lieutenant First territorial regiment, Thirty-eighth; W. F. Herring Shaw, late second lieutenant Fifth Ohio, Forty-sixth; Lorenzo D. Gaszer, late captain Second Ohio, Forty-third; Charles G. Lawrence, troop E, Sixth cavalry, Forty-fifth; H. L. Evans, late corporal Sixth Ohio, B. P. Lukins, late First Ohio, Forty-sixth; — Yost, late captain Eighth Ohio, Forty-seventh. To be second lieutenants, Edward P. Barber, sergeant major Eighth Ohio, Forty-fifth.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Sept. 8.—The Home Building and Loan association, Columbus, capital stock $250,000; the Grau Piano company, Cincinnati, capital stock $25,000; the Haven Malleable Castings company, Cincinnati, capital stock $50,000; the Rutland Canning company, Rutland, O., capital stock $10,000.

Frenchman Won.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—A jury composed of American and foreign architects has awarded M. Benard, the Parisian architect, the first prize in the competition sponsored by Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, who offered prizes for the best plans for new buildings for the University of California. The ultimate cost of the improvements will reach into the millions.

Supplies For Porto Rico.

Baltimore, Sept. 8.—The United States transport Wright, loaded with relief supplies of food and clothing contributed by Baltimore and Washington residents for the hurricane sufferers of Porto Rico, sailed for San Juan, Captain Prout, commander of the ship, expecting to arrive at Porto Rico next Tuesday. The donations amount to 400 tons.

Filipinos Congress Called.

Manila, Sept. 8.—A Filipino who has arrived here from Tarlac says an extraordinary session of the revolutionary congress took place at Tarlac Aug. 24. Aguinaldo presided and chose Mabini as president of the supreme court and Gonzaga as attorney general.

Passenger Steamer Aground.

Detroit, Sept. 8.—Word was received that the passenger steamer State of Michigan is ashore at Colchester. The wrecking tug Saginaw has gone to her relief. The state of Michigan runs from Lake Erie ports and Detroit to Mackinaw. She was bound down.

Blanche Bruce's Widow.

Tuskegee, Ala., Sept. 8.—Mrs. B. K. Bruce of Mississippi, widow of the late United States Senator Bruce, has accepted the position of lady principal of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute at Tuskegee, Ala.

Governor of Yucatan.

New York, Sept. 8.—Among the passengers who arrived on board the Ward line steamer Segurana, from Havana and Mexican ports was General Canton and staff of the Mexican army. The general is governor of Yucatan.

About 500 feet of pier sheds were burned in Brooklyn and the two steamers, Railway and Buoror were damaged.

CROWD IS ATTRACTED.

Unusual Interest In the Meeting of the Cabinet Counsel.

WAR SPIRIT IN EVIDENCE.

No Abatement In the Intense Feelings Displayed by Both Sides of Those Concerned In Transvaal Controversy.

London, Sept. 8.—The cabinet counsel here attracted greater public interest than any meeting of the ministers for years past.

A well dressed crowd of people cordially greeted the most prominent of the cabinet ministers and impatiently thronged the precincts of the foreign office throughout the season, eagerly scrutinizing the faces of those coming and going in the hope of obtaining a glimmering of the outcome of the momentous event.

The war spirit was evident on all sides and the generals were enthusiastically cheered as they appeared, the crowd evidently understanding that they had been summoned to be in readiness in the event of the ministers wishing their advice.

A crowd of from two to three thousand persons assembled at the Whitehall entrance where the foreign and colonial offices are situated, at an early hour. Mr. Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, and the Earl of Salford, under secretary were the first arrivals among the officials, and they were followed by the commander-in-chief of the army and General Sirs Buller, who, it is said, will take the field in the event of a war with the Transvaal. The arrival of Lord Salisbury, the premier, was the signal for cheering.

Under Secretaries Wyndham of the war department and Broderick of the foreign office were summoned to attend.

By 1 p. m. all the cabinet ministers were present.

It was reported that Mr. Balfour the first lord of the treasury, did not agree with some of his colleagues in the cabinet and there was talk of a split.

THE RAAD DEBATES

Create Considerable Feeling Among Citizens at Cape Town.

Cape Town, Sept. 8.—The reports of the raad debate at Pretoria published here created intense feeling and the disparaging references to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, imperial secretary of state for the colonies, and Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner in South Africa, are resented.

The feeling displayed by members of the raad surprised those who believed that a peaceful solution would be reached and such a solution in the opinion of many has been rendered very difficult.

In spite of a downfall of rain 1,500 workmen assembled and passed a resolution imploring a prompt termination by the imperial government of the present tension "which is causing distress, bringing the community face to face with bankruptcy, alienating the moderate element here and in the Transvaal and sapping British prestige."

The resolution also affirms unabated confidence in Sir Alfred Milner. The meeting was closed with cheers for Chamberlain, Milner and Rhodes, and with groans for Kruger and Schriener.

Butler Arrives.

London, Sept. 8.—Sir William Francis Butler, who was recently relieved as commander of the British troops in South Africa, by Lieutenant General Sir Frederick Forestier Walker, has arrived here. He reported at the war office and was consulted in regard to the situation in South Africa.

Ships For Transports.

London, Sept. 8.—Many ship owners have called at the offices of the admiralty and offered their vessels as transports. They were told, however, that nothing would be done in this direction until the cabinet council had decided on what action would be taken in regard to the crisis.

Anxious to Get Away.

Johannesburg, Sept. 8.—The anxiety here in regard to the crisis has been intensified by the tone of the debate in the Raad. The railroad offices continue to be besieged by those wanting to get out of the country.

Ordered to Transvaal.

Bombay, Sept. 8.—The Nineteenth Hussars and the Twenty-first field battery of artillery have been ordered to leave Secunderabad for the Transvaal Sept. 18.

Boston, Sept. 8.—Rear Admiral Picken, commandant of the navy yard, died of apoplexy. He was 89 years old.

JURY DISCHARGED.

No Conviction Secured In the Case of Henry Delagel.

Darles, Ga., Sept. 8.—The jury in the case of the state against Henry Delagel, charged with assault upon a white woman and whose arrest caused the recent serious disturbances between the whites and the blacks in this county was out from 6 p. m. until 9 a. m., when Judge Seabrooke, being informed that there was no chance for a verdict declared a mistrial. He appointed next Wednesday as the day for another hearing.

Henry Delagel will be retried with the other members of his family who are charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Townsend. The defendants will be arraigned in Effingham county court, a change of venue having been granted.

Colonel Gerrard, who has been here since Tuesday night with a detachment of the Savannah guards, left with them and Henry Delagel for Savannah. This is probably the end of the disturbances in this county and many of the negroes express regret that the trouble arose.

Had No Relations With Dreyfus.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—The Reichsanzeiger in the official portion of the paper publishes the following statement: "We are authorized to repeat herewith the declarations which the imperial government, while loyally observing the reserve demanded in regard to the internal matters of another country has made concerning the French captain, Dreyfus, for the preservation of his own dignity and the fulfillment of a duty to humanity, Prince von Munster, after obtaining the orders of the emperor, repeatedly made in December, 1894, and January, 1895, to M. Hanotaux, M. Dupuy and M. Casimir-Perier, declarations to the effect that the imperial embassy in France never maintained either directly or indirectly any relations with Dreyfus."

Two Colored Regiments.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Orders will be issued from the war department announcing the field and staff officers of two additional volunteer regiments which will be organized after the manner of the so-called immune regiments sent to Cuba last year, their company officers and privates being exclusively colored men. It is expected that these regiments will be recruited with greater rapidity than the white regiments and that experienced men will fill them so quickly that two commands will be ready to sail for the Philippines early in November.

A Possible Link.

Paris, Sept. 8.—The skeleton of a man was found under some rocks near here where it had apparently been for several years. It is said the find was made near the place where Alexander Jester camped the night before the mysterious disappearance of Gilbert Gates 30 years ago. It is thought this find may form another link in the chain of circumstantial evidence against the old man charged with the murder of his young traveling companion.

American Capitalists Interested.

Pekin, Sept. 8.—The Dowager empress of China caused a telegram to be sent to Pritchard Morgan, M. P., to proceed immediately to China and commence his mining and commercial operations in the province of Szechuen. Mr. Morgan has replied that he will leave Genoa, Sept. 19, reaching Peking at the end of October and bringing with him a large staff and American capitalists who are interested in the Morgan enterprises.

Money All Paid.

New York, Sept. 8.—All of the money in the payment of the San Pedro mines and the Monterey mineral railroad of Mexico, recently purchased by the Mexican Lead company and negotiated by George D. Cook of Chicago, was paid in this city. Part of the money paid for the mines was transferred to Spain for three of the Maiz brothers who live there, and the balance to Mexico.

No Charges Preferred.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Third Assistant Secretary of State Cridler says that there are no charges before the department affecting the integrity of Dr. Edward Bedloe, consul at Canton, China. It is, therefore, assumed that there is no truth in the reports that Dr. Bedloe has been accused of accepting bribes for obtaining concessions or for passing Chinese into America.

Charles Dewey Will Attend.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 8.—Charles Dewey, brother of Admiral Dewey, will go to New York for the celebration attending the arrival of the admiral in that city. Eight or ten other relatives of the admiral will also be present on the occasion.

Dover, England, Sept. 8.—The Prince of Wales, who has been on a visit to Marienbad, arrived here and proceeded to London.

WERE NOT ALL BLANKS

Loaded Shells Used In Sham Battle of San Juan Kill.

SMALL BOY SHOT IN HEART.

While Acting the Part of a Spanish Soldier Private R. R. Smithson Is Struck by a Ball in the Head.

Columbus, O., Sept. 8.—Paine's battle of San Juan hill which has been the night attraction at the State fair grounds was tragically realistic. The casualties were:

Killed, Charles Krag, 7, shot through the heart.

Fatally wounded, Revillo R. Smithson, private company F, Fourth O. N. G. Shot in the head.

Badly wounded, Max Gugenheim, shot in the side.

Slightly wounded, Private Daly, company F, shot in the ankle.

These casualties occurred probably 10 minutes apart, and the shots came from both north and south.

The first tragedy occurred at 9:15, and the vast audience in the grand stand knew nothing of the terrible events that had occurred.

It was just as the American soldiers were closing in on the Spaniards, the volleys being fired in quick succession. Suddenly Private R. R. Smithson, of F company, brother of Associated Press Operator O. W. Smithson, who was impersonating a Spaniard, dropped to the ground. One of his companions said to him "For heaven's sake don't die yet! It isn't time!"

Later Private Daly, of F company, dropped with a shot in the ankle, which supposedly came from the same direction as that which struck Smithson. Daly was not badly hurt.

All this time the few people who saw the men drop from the grand stand, thought that it was part of the performance, when Fisher's, Fletcher's and the city ambulances arrived, they knew that something serious had occurred.

Suddenly, during the firing, Mr. Max Gugenheim dropped in the grand stand, crying, "I am shot!" A laugh went up, the people thinking it was a joke, but the mirth of the crowd soon changed to seriousness as the blood began to drip from Mr. Gugenheim's side.

"Is there a doctor in the stand?" some one called, and in a few moments physicians were at work on his wound.

Over in the north end of the grand stand Mrs. A. J. Krag sat, with her 7-year-old son, Charles. They had just changed seats when there was a shrill whistle of a bullet, a choking cry from the boy and he fell over shot through the heart.

Instantly that portion of the stand was in the utmost confusion and doctors hastened to the side of the lad, who was then beyond all earthly aid.

Colonel Speaks, who had charge of the troops, has furnished the following statement for publication:

"The hall taken from the body of Charles Krag is a round one, and about one-third the size of the regulation bullet. The one which struck Mr. Gugenheim in the breast and that striking Daly in the ankle were of the same mold and pattern as that taken from the Krag boy, and, of course, have no resemblance to the Springfield pattern used exclusively in regulation ammunition. I have not yet seen the ball which struck Smithson, but have no doubt that it will prove to be the same as the others.

"The ammunition used was all supplied by the Paine company, and the orders, even from the first rehearsal, were that inspections were to be made of cartridge belts and clothing before issuing blanks for each evening's entertainment. Every precaution was taken to prevent the firing of a regulation ball cartridge, and there is not the slightest evidence of one such having become accidentally mixed in with the blanks."

The report of Colonel A. B. Coit and George D. Freeman, the investigating committee, placed no blame on the Fourth Ohio, but claimed loaded ammunition was unintentionally given out by the spectacular company.

An Important Decision.

New York, Sept. 8.—The general appraisers handed down a decision that has been awaited with considerable interest by typewriter concerns and dealers in typewriter ribbons. It was appraised under the tariff act of 1897 as "colors containing oils and size" at 30 and 35 per cent. advalorem and 8 and 10 cents per pound according to quality. The firm claimed that the inks had been re-classified as printer's ink at 25 per cent. advalorem duty. The appraisers sustain the claim and class the product as printer's ink.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Sunday.

Hon. E. M. Dickson, a Paris Democrat, is numbered now among the supporters of the Brown ticket. Mr. Dickson is the L. and N.'s attorney in Bourbon County, which may account for some things.

The Brownites are urging Governor Bradley to get a move on and take the field against Mr. Goebel. Well, Mr. Bradley may do that, but he's not apt to take the stump for Mr. Taylor, his party's nominee for Governor.

TAYLOR DODGING.

General Taylor in his opening campaign speech at London said: "Away with the tariff, away with the money question! There is one issue paramount to all and that is Goebelism."

"We don't blame the General for such remarks," says the Winchester Sun. "God knows if there are two questions that a Republican candidate wants to waive or run from they are the tariff and the money issue. As to the third, if it be true, as has been charged, that Gen. Taylor has announced that he will not meet Mr. Goebel on the stump for a fair discussion of the issue it puts the Republican candidate in the light of a self-confessed dodger of the very issue he would make prominent. Come out in the open, General."

TEN TO FOUR.

Some of the Republicans and bolters are making themselves ridiculous by their talk about the Goebel election law. The Louisville Post, for instance, after letting out a great cry that the Goebelites are fixing to steal the vote of that city publishes a card from a lawyer who calls attention to the fact that Democrats and Republicans will have two election officers each, in each precinct, and that every party will have one inspector and one challenger—that is the Democrats, Republicans, Populists, Prohibitionists and Brownites will each have one inspector and one challenger in each precinct, with the four election officers equally divided between Democrats and Republicans.

That will give the Democrats a representation of four in each precinct, while the representatives of the combined opposition parties will number ten at each polling place. Now the four Democrats have got to be a pretty smart set to get away with the ten other fellows. But that's what they are going to do, if you listen to the yawping of the Post, the Dispatch and the gang they are trailing with.

The provisions of the Goebel law on this point are the same as the old election law. If every party hasn't a fair representation at the polls it will be the fault of the party and not the law.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents! Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

A CLINCHER.

Hon. Mr. Brown Wanted That Nomination at Louisville Bad.

His Friend Hon. C. C. McChord Tells All About It—What Has the Ex-Governor to Say?

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky.—Although it was not extensively advertised that the Hon. C. C. McChord was to speak here, a large crowd greeted him at the court house. In the beginning of his speech he said he had been forced by Mr. Brown's Bowling Green speech to make a statement concerning his actions in trying to have Brown nominated at the Louisville convention. He said that he had always been a warm friend to ex-Gov. Brown, and regretted to have made this statement, and added that he had declined to make any statement on the subject to Senator Goebel and several others. His statement is as follows:

I regret exceeding the necessity which forces me to say anything at all regarding the controversy between Gov. Brown and Senator Goebel, and do so now, not as Senator Goebel's witness, as Gov. Brown has intimated, but in defense of myself and in order that my connection with the affair may be fully understood.

It is a well-known fact that throughout the contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor, I was Gov. Brown's friend and was ready at all times to subordinate the interests or claims of all others to that of Gov. Brown, not only for this nomination, but for anything else he might desire in the way of political preferment. Both before and during the State convention I was frequently in Gov. Brown's office in consultation with him about the contest for Governor. I found him to be the warm personal friend and supporter of Senator Goebel. He believed, and frequently so expressed himself, both before and during the convention, that it would result in a deadlock and the nomination of some other than the three candidates for Governor; and when I and other friends would suggest the possibility of his nomination he invariably said he would take the nomination only with the approval and consent of Senator Goebel. Therefore, knowing his determination in this regard, I at no time considered the possibility of his nomination except with Senator Goebel's approval and consent.

About 10 o'clock a. m. on the day of Senator Goebel's nomination I visited Gov. Brown's office, as had been my custom during the convention, and expressed to him the belief that the convention would nominate some one other than the three candidates for Governor. Gov. Brown asked me what Mr. Woodson thought about it. I told him I had not seen Mr. Woodson that morning, but I would go and find him, have a talk with him and bring him back with me. To this Gov. Brown agreed. I went immediately to the convention hall and found Mr. Woodson, who accompanied me back to Gov. Brown's office, where the subject of my previous conversation with Gov. Brown was discussed by us. I was firm in the belief that the convention would take up and nominate some other person than Hardin, Goebel or Stone. I told Gov. Brown that his friend, the Hon. R. F. Peak, was expecting this, and was ready and anxious to and would present his name should that time arrive. Gov. Brown said to us that throughout the contest he had been the friend of Senator Goebel; that at no time had he been willing to accept the nomination without his approval, but that he was very much pained when a friend informed him that Senator Goebel had said that under no state of case would he (Goebel) ever consent to Brown's nomination. We told Gov. Brown that we did not believe Senator Goebel had said any such thing, but upon the contrary Senator Goebel would be more than glad to see him (Brown) nominated if he could not receive the nomination himself. During this conversation various things were suggested by each of us as to what could be done for Gov. Brown in the event of a stalemate in the convention, but not a word was said, nor a suggestion made, as to his nomination being secured by a "clean" or any other vote, except by the delegates as then seated in that convention. It was agreed that the proper thing was to have Gov. Brown's name suggested to the delegates, and that the afternoon paper (the Louisville Times) was the best route in that direction. As to who suggested this method I cannot now with certainty recall, but the fact is there was no disagreement between us as to this being the proper thing to do.

I asked Gov. Brown what were his relations with the owners and managers of the Courier-Journal and Times. He responded that he was on most friendly terms with them, and especially with Mr. W. N. Haldeman, who was his warm personal friend, and suggested that I go and talk with him. I told him that I did not know Mr. W. N. Haldeman, but that I would ask my friend, Mr. Graham Vreeland, to accompany me. I started out of his office, leaving Mr. Woodson there, when Gov. Brown called me back and said: "Say to Mr. Haldeman that if by reason of his paper's suggestion a nomination is made which will harmonize the convention, his paper will be entitled to the credit, and it will do more than any other thing to restore them to the confidence of the Democrats of the State." I then went and found Mr. Vreeland and told him my mission. He took me to Mr. W. N. Haldeman's office, introduced me to him, and I made the request of him, in accordance with the conversation had with Gov. Brown. Mr. Haldeman directed the insertion of the article. I desire to state most emphatically that Gov. Brown's charge that I am Senator Goebel's witness in this matter is unwarranted and a great injustice to me. The fact is that I have done all in my power to protect Gov. Brown in this matter. I have never up to this good hour told, or even admitted, to any living mortal that either Mr. Woodson or I held any such conference with Gov. Brown, or that I visited the Times office. Senator Goebel wrote me about ten days ago, asking me for a candid statement of the matter, which I declined to give to him, and would not now say anything but for the fact that Gov. Brown forced me to do so. I have always been Gov. Brown's friend and am yet. I did all in my power to persuade him not to take the course he is now pursuing against the Democratic ticket, not because I am upon that ticket and that his candidacy may injure me, but because of my devotion to him and to his interests. I am not unmindful nor ungrateful for the honor he once conferred upon me by appointing me a member of the Railroad Commission. I do not believe I have ever been charged with having betrayed that trust, and both before, during and since my term of office I have been and am yet his friend. I yield not the palm of loyalty to him to any man, and do most heartily reciprocate that friendship for me and mine so beautifully expressed in his letter tendering the appointment of Railroad Commissioner to me in 1891.

THREE days in succession this week the temperature here in Maysville was up to 103°. The showers yesterday brought a delightful change. Hicks, the weather prophet, predicts another hot spell about the 20th of the month.

THE nominees on the Democratic ticket were formally certified to the Secretary of State Friday, being the first to file certificates under the law. The certificate makes a formal demand that the names of these nominees be printed on the ballot under the rooster emblem.

THE engagement of Miss Virginia Stanton and Rev. William J. Mahoney is announced. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. G. McLean, of Frankfort, Wednesday, October 18. Miss Stanton is a daughter of the late Major Henry T. Stanton, and is the youngest of a family of beautiful women. Mr. Mahoney is an eloquent young minister of the Baptist Church, from Virginia, but whose home is now at Nashville, Tenn.

COL. CRADDOCK, in his conference notes, says: "Rev. Alex. Redd, Presiding Elder of the Shelbyville district, announced at Newcastle that he will support Goebel for Governor. He said that his information concerning Mr. Goebel was of such a character as to lead him to believe that the Covington man would make a Governor that the people, the plain people, might trust. Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Shelbyville, is another Goebel supporter and is thoroughly familiar with the Kenton man and his character. Both of these ministers are former pastors of the Paris church, and are much beloved." Mr. Redd was formerly Presiding Elder of the Maysville district.

REV. W. S. PAYNE, formerly pastor of the Washington Christian Church, now pastor of the church at Princeton, presented a handsome floral wreath Wednesday to Senator Goebel. It was a gift from the German citizens of Princeton and was presented as a mark of their loyalty and confidence. In accepting the flowers Senator Goebel said: "I want to say, my fellow citizens, in my canvas for the nomination I was accused of being of German parentage. I want to assure you that I had nothing more glorious than the fact that I sprang from such ancestors; that I sprang from the nation that gave to the world Goethe and Schiller and Frederick the Great, and Von Moltke and Blucher and Bismarck."

A first-class line of entirely new goods sold at the least possible price. In the matter of DIAMONDS, persons purchasing from us have found our prices 20 per cent. lower than our Cincinnati competitors. REPAIRING in all branches only first-class. No danger of ruining a good watch by poor workmanship.

Dress Goods Arrivals!

Store news accumulates so rapidly it's quite a task to keep up with it. Here's a full line of French Imported Plaids. Veritable Lords, Counts and Dukes of the royal Dress Goods families. They came yesterday. You'll not find prices a bar to your possession of these beauties. They are here at 60c., $1 and $1.75.

WOMEN'S COLLARS.

Fully equal in all respects of appearance and wear to sorts selling regularly at twice the price. Five ply and linen on both sides, so as to hold their shape in warm weather. The very newest scalloped front 10c., though 15c. would be reasonable.

INITIAL HANDKERCHIEFS.

Softest Japonette, neatly hemstitched, pretty initial worked in cream silk; 8½c. instead of 12½c., because we have more than we want of a kind.

SILK KERCHIEF SCARFS.

D. HUNT & SON.

River News.

The Dunbar passed down Friday morning and the Argand up.

The Keystone State is on the marine ways for an overhauling.

Rises are reported at several points, but it amounts to only a few inches. Showers have been falling throughout the upper valleys.

The materials to go into the elegant new steamer that is to be constructed at Howard's shipyard for the Boston's machinery are being prepared, and the initiatory steps toward her building are now on. She will be 280 feet long, forty-eight beam, with six foot hold. The powerful machinery of the old Bostona will make her hum.

"A Fatal Error."

As presented by the Murrys last night this proved a most enjoyable bill, and judging by the continued applause there has seldom been a production on our stage more appreciated. The cast is much stronger than on their former visit. Mr. Harry Stanley as Van Dyke Brown was more amusing than in any previous bill, and his every entrance was a cause for laughter. His songs were well taken and brought forth great applause. Victor Lambert as Capt. Warner, Frank Robison as Smiley Walker, Fred Tillich as Major Gordon and Miss Crawford as Rose Gordon all deserve special mention. The dancing by Lonnie Deane again proved as beautiful as on previous nights.

This afternoon and to-night Miss Deane will appear in all her different dances with complete electrical effects. At the matinee this afternoon they present "Fogg's Ferry" and to-night the most laughable play of the week, entitled "Triss," or Beyond the Rockies."

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. J. Wood & Son, druggists, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Public SALE.

ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1899,

at 2 o'clock p. m., at the court house door, in the city of Maysville, Ky., we will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, a tract of on Lawrence Creek, Mason Conny, Ky. This land is a portion of the farm of the late George L. Forman, deceased, and is located about three and a half miles from Maysville. It is what is known as Walnut, Sugar Tree and Burr Oak land, and is very productive. It has one small Dwelling house, two new barns, a Corn Crib and a Stable. The water supply never fails. One hundred and twenty-five acres (125) of the land is now in grass.

The sale will be on the following terms, to-wit: One-fourth cash, one-fourth in one year, one-fourth in two years, and one-fourth in three years, the deferred payments bearing 6 per cent. interest, payable annually and secured by lien on land. The land will have been seeded at time of sale and purchaser will take land as it stands at day of sale, with full possession March 1st, 1900.

Now is the time for any one desiring good productive Mason County farm on easy terms to purchase same at a fair price.

PROF. HATHAWAY.

The Principal of Maysville's Colored High School Handsomely Complimented.

(Mt. Sterling Democrat.)

Prof. James S. Hathaway, of this city, left last Saturday for Maysville to take charge of the Colored Public High School of that city as Principal. The writer has known Prof. Hathaway all his life and takes pleasure in recommending him both to the white and colored people of Maysville as an able educator, an upright, conscientious, Christian gentleman, and worthy of the confidence and respect of all people. We doubt if there is a colored man in the State who is more highly educated, and we feel sure there are none who stand so deservedly high with all who know him. Our playmate in boyhood days, we are proud of the distinction he has attained in his chosen life work of educator of his race.

Superior and Kentucky DISC DRILLS

Are King and Queen of all Drills. Their superiority over all competitors are too well known to need comment; suffice it to say that we placed over sixty of these Drills the past season and have yet the first complaint from a single purchaser. On the other hand every one who used them stand ready and willing to give their testimonial as to the superior work done by them, and their unanimous verdict is if you expect to purchase a Drill this season, get either the

and no other. Do not delay placing your orders and there will be no disappointments, as is the case each season when we are forced to resort to the river and express, which makes an additional expense. Every Drill is warranted to be just as represented. Do not allow yourself to be talked into buying some inferior Drill for the sake of saving a few dollars. Remember the cheapest is not the best, but the best is always the cheapest. Respectfully,

HEATHEN JUGGLERY.

A Couple of Anecdotes Showing the Trickery of These People.

Returned missionaries have a great fund of story-telling and anecdotes to relate of those whom they are trying to Christianize and elevate. Two that the writer recently heard will bear printing, as showing the trickery of heathen people, as well as to show what adepts they are at jugglery, for which they are famous the world over.

The first, which we will call the "chicken pie" story, is as follows: A well-to-do family of English people were in the habit of having a chicken pie made every Sunday, and, as they had plenty without it, they invariably sent it, without cutting, to a near, deserving neighbor, who was not so well off.

They kept this custom up for a long time, but one Sunday, for some reason, they concluded to cut the pie at home. The cook stood by as unconcerned as any when the announcement was made, and when the crust was attacked it fell through without resistance, as there was no chicken in it.

The cook, having seen that the pie was never kept at home, had all along kept the chicken for himself and just set up the crust to be sent to the neighbor, and of course the latter was of too good breeding to make any outcry.

The next may be called the "Cheese" story:

English cheeses are considered a great luxury in India and are very high, consequently very few can afford them. Many years ago when that distinguished and saintly man, Henry Martyn, first went to India, he and another missionary were in the habit of dining the one with the other on Fridays and Wednesdays, day and day about. They both had one of these cheeses in their families and only had them on their tables on these occasions, they being long keepers.

It was noticed by the Indian cooks at both establishments that the cheese was cut only on these occasions, and they made an agreement to dispose of one of them for their own benefit and let the other do the service of two, which they accomplished without any trouble, realizing a nice sum from the sale and making no inconvenience for any one, as they carried the remaining cheese from house to house on the days mentioned.

This worked all right for a good while, until the size of the cheese, being the same as was supposed by both owners, attracted attention and comment, and this being repeated more than once, it was determined one day to send to the other house for the other cheese and see how they looked together.

Of course no cheese was found and then the trick was discovered.

MCKINLEY'S RECORD.

For Three Years the Republican Administration Has Piled Up a Deficit.

[Boston Post.]

The first two years of the McKinley administration showed a deficit of revenue as compared with expenditure. This was explained by saying that the Dingley tariff had not got into full operation, and the prediction was added that the next year it would be all right. But the next year the deficit continued to roll up until the Spanish war came along and there was a lucky chance to even things up by clapping on "war taxes." This was done, and the war revenue bill was contrived to supplement the deficiencies of the Dingley tariff bill while professedly designed only to meet the extraordinary expenses of the war.

For a time it seemed as if this result would be attained, and from Washington were sent out congratulations upon the wonderful success of the McKinley financial policy. But the end of the second McKinley year also showed a deficit, and that was explained by laying it to the war. Pretty soon the war came to an end, and Washington indulged in predictions of a surplus. But the cost of fighting the cause of benevolent assimilation falsified this prediction, the deficit began to loom up again, and to-day the third year of the McKinley regime promises to make as bad a showing as either of those which have preceded it.

To put the brake on the wagon going down the hill is a help to the horse, when the wagon is heavily loaded. But what driver would think of applying the brake to a loaded wagon going up hill? If he did, his sensible horses would probably balk. Many a man is in the condition of pulling a load up hill with the brake set against him. When his stomach is out of order, and the allied organs of digestion and nutrition impaired in their functions, a friction is set up which has to be overcome in addition to the performance of daily duties. A foul stomach makes a foggy brain, and a man with a disordered stomach has often to grope his way through the day's business like a man in a fog. He forgets appointments. Problems seem presented to his mind "wrong end to." This condition is entirely remedied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the stomach and digestive and nutritive system into a condition of perfect health, and gives a clear brain, a steady hand and a light step for the day's duties. When constipation clogs the channels of the body, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will work an effectual cure of that distressing disease.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Bessie Peed, of Mayfield, is the guest of the Misses Peed, of Millersburg.

—Miss Alma Binzel, of Beaver Dam, Wis., is visiting her brother, Mr. E. H. Binzel.

—Miss Clemmie Tolle is spending the day with relatives at Ewing and attending the fair.

—Miss Nellie Page Owens has been the guest of Mrs. Thomas Porter, of Covington, this week.

—Mr. I. M. Lane, Mrs. Jane Morris and Miss Nannie Lane are at Newport attending the M. E. Conference.

—Mr. J. F. Barbour returned Friday from Cleveland where he was at the national convention of bankers.

—Miss Atta L. Dressel left this morning for St. Louis to accept a position as trimmer with her aunt, Miss Anna B. Hill. She carries with her the best wishes of her friends.

"FAST" COMPANY.

It Leads To the Downfall and Ruin of Many Men.

How often do we hear of men taking their lives who laid their troubles and downfall to fast company. A case in point was that of Rowland, a lumber dealer of Cincinnati, the past week. This calls to mind an incident that came under the writer's notice many years ago, on account of the similarity of names and callings.

A man whom we had known to be a sincere Christian and Sunday School Superintendent at Cincinnati and who was a large lumber dealer and of the same name, came to this city on business and was led off by fast company into drinking, a thing he had never before indulged in to the slightest. He returned home under the influence. The writer was pained beyond measure to see such a man in that condition, and we don't suppose he ever imagined that any one saw him who knew him at home and who knew of his professions.

He was a highly polished, elegant gentleman, and we never heard of his going wrong again, but it shows that fast company will drag the best of men down sometimes, and frequently, if indulged in to any extent, leads to their ultimate ruin and destruction, as was the result in the case of poor Rowland recently.

Fourteen Thousand Rays of Light.

The largest cities of the east have been gazing in open-eyed wonder at the marvelous dancing of Papinta, billed as the sensation of Europe. It is only behind the scenes that it is known how these beautiful rainbow effects are obtained. The dancer has four assistants, using, all told, twelve calcium lights, which, with the aid of mirrors at different angles, cast over fourteen thousand rays of brilliant light, creating a gorgeous dancing picture. A complete reproduction of this grand "rainbow" dance will be given as one of the features of the sparkling, laughable play of "Casey's Troubles."

SUSPICIOUS CASES

At Mississippi City Are Not Regarded as Yellow Fever.

New Orleans, Sept. 8.—There are no new developments in the fever situation here. The latest case reported is of a very mild character and doing well. Dr. Horton, of the Louisiana state board of health, Dr. Gant, of the Mississippi state board of health, and Dr. Murray, of the United States Marine hospital service, spent the day in Mississippi City, on the gulf coast, where the 12 suspicious cases were reported. They returned to New Orleans and say that there are no symptoms in the cases to justify any apprehension of fever otherwise than local. The cases are confined to one family in adjoining houses. Texas and Alabama still hold onto quarantine, but Mississippi refuses to put on the slightest embargo.

Inmates Escaped.

Ottawa, Ills., Sept. 8.—St. Xavier's academy and the Sisters of Mercy convent were destroyed by fire. The inmates, 60 sisters and pupils, escaped in their night clothes without injury. The loss amounts to $75,000; insurance $40,000. An addition was being constructed and it is thought the fire started from a tinner's furnace left in the new building.

Dewey Was Not Present.

Gibraltar, Sept. 8.—Major General J. F. Slade, the officer commanding the Royal artillery here and other artillery officers stationed at this post entertained the officers of the United States cruiser Olympia at dinner. The usual toasts were drunk and it was altogether a brilliant affair. Admiral Dewey was not present.

New Cement Company.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—The Union Cement company, with a capital of upwards of $2,500,000, has been organized in this city in opposition to the recently formed cement combine. The company has secured a valuable property in the heart of the cement field near Nazareth, Pa.
